- ❑ Division Chair: Humanities, Religion, and Social Sciences, McMurry University, August 2021-present

EDUCATION

- ❑ Doctor of Philosophy, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, 1987-1991. (Departed the Baptist Church and confirmed in the Episcopal Church, 2000.)
 - Major: Homiletics; Minor: Theology
 - Dissertation: *David Tracy and Theological Conversation: A Hermeneutic for Sermon Development in the Pastoral Context.
 - David Tracy is the Greeley Distinguished Service Professor Emeritus of Catholic Studies and Professor Emeritus of Theology and the Philosophy of Religion in the Divinity School at the University of Chicago. Tracy is a systematic theologian whose areas of expertise include postmodern theology, epistemology, and hermeneutics with particular interest in the philosophical hermeneutics of Martin Heidegger, Hans-Georg Gadamer, and Paul Ricoeur and the theological methodologies of Paul Tillich and Bernard Lonergan.
 - The dissertation analyzed Tracy's hermeneutics in the context of modern and postmodern thought and applied his hermeneutical methodology to sermon development and delivery. This application utilized the framework of Aristotle's rhetorical canons.
- ❑ Graduate study, PhD level, Baylor University, Waco, Texas, 1984-1985. Areas of Concentration: Religions of the World and Church History.
- ❑ Master of Divinity, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, 1981-1984, Area of Concentration: Pastoral Care and Counseling
