

Dr. Frank Badua

Short Bio

Dr. Frank Badua earned his Ph.D. and MBA from Rutgers University in New Jersey. Before entering academia, he worked in the tax compliance and financial accounting departments at Merrill Lynch and the New York Daily News.

Over his academic career, Dr. Badua has taught nearly every accounting course at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. In recent years, his teaching has focused on accounting systems, auditing, cost accounting, and financial accounting.

He has published peer-reviewed research in accounting information systems, audit and assurance, accounting pedagogy, accounting history, corporate governance, cost accounting, forensic accounting, and sustainability accounting. In addition to his academic work, Dr. Badua volunteers each tax season with the IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program, preparing tax returns for elderly and low-income taxpayers. He also has professional designations as a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) and Certified Internal Auditor (CIA).

Teaching Areas

- Accounting and Finance
- Specific courses include:
 - Accounting Systems
 - Intermediate Accounting I
 - Cost Accounting
 - Advanced Accounting
 - Student Managed Investment Fund

Research Interests

- Accounting Information Systems
- Audit and Assurance
- Accounting Pedagogy
- Accounting History
- Corporate Governance
- Cost Accounting
- Forensic Accounting
- Sustainability Accounting